Brief History of Craftsman Credit Union Established 1947

The credit union opened for business on August 8, 1947. It started off with $113.25. Our first office was located in the Treasurer's apartment.

Next locations were Local 22 Hall, then an office at 4069 Michigan Avenue at the corner of Scotten for 10 years.

In 1955 the credit union name was changed from Cadillac Employee's Credit Union to Craftsman Credit Union.

In 1963 land was purchased for the new and present home of Craftsman Credit Union at 2444 Clark Street, Detroit, Michigan where we remain today.

Through the years our ongoing credit union growth has enabled us to continue to service our members with up-to-date products. Our members' commitment to the credit union has made it possible for us to keep up with the necessary electronics and computerized equipment needed in a successful modern financial institution.
